CHINA REFUSES JAPAN KILBANE WINS BY KNOCK OUT IN SEVENTH ROUND BANDITS HOLD UP CIRCUS

Tokio's Proposal for Direct Negotiation on Shantung Return Rejected—Insists Upon Excluding Discussion of Subject From Far East Conference

TOKIO, Sept. 17.—Distinct disappointment followed publication of the news here that China has decided to refuse Japan's offer to settle the Shantung return question by direct negotiation. The news, however, caused no change in the firm determination of Japan to exclude the issue from the conference on Far Eastern affairs to be held in Washington prior to the disarmament meeting called by President Harding.

It is learned that China is equally determined that the Shantung matter will be made an issue at the Washington conference.

China Follows People

Speaking informally on this point and on the reported rejection, by China of the Japanese offer, Mr. Hoo, Chinese minister to Tokio, said:

"China is a republic. Therefore, the Chinese Government must follow the desires of her people, who demand the presentation of the Shantung matter before the Washington conference."

The Japanese press lays the blame for the rejection on President Sun Yat Sen, head of the Southern Chinese Government. The Yorozu, in commenting upon this phase of the matter, says:

"The President of the south of China is planning a hundred million dollar loan in the United States. America has a plan to completely Americanize all of South China. He is really an American agent therefore."

It is generally believed here that the Peking Government was willing to enter into direct negotiations but feared the effect of such a move on popular sentiment in view of the success of the southern republic and the large following gained by Dr. Sun. Advice here state the bulk of the Chinese delegation to the disarmament conference sails on the Hawkeye State, October 10.

DEMENTED WOMAN FOUND BY POLICE

While making a round of the city last night, Captain McGuire and Officer Lauritzen of the police department found a woman, clad only in her nightclothes, wandering the streets of Tropic near the Triangle Garage. The woman was very weak from exposure and was taken at once to the Mission Rest Home, 1011 South San Fernando road, for medical attention.

The woman was unable to tell the officers her name and little could be learned regarding her past history, save that she lived in East Hollywood.

The husband of the woman reached the hospital about 2 a. m. and returned her to her home. The name was suppressed.

AMERICAN LEGION INITIATION FRIDAY

The regular meeting of Glendale Post, American Legion, was held in the Legion hall, 610 East Broadway, last night.

The initiation of new members will take place at the regular meeting next Friday night. At that time, an interesting program will be rendered. If present plans are carried out, the program will consist of a vaudeville number, several addresses and several musical numbers. At that time seven applications for membership will be acted upon. Commander Keifer will have charge of the initiatory service.

KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO

Farris C. Brown of 217 West Lomita avenue was knocked down by an automobile on Sixth street, near Melrose avenue, Los Angeles, yesterday, and his left collarbone was broken in two places. He is able to be up and around, though suffering considerable pain at times.

AEROPLANE THIEF DARES DEATH IN WILD FLIGHT

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—Chicago's first airplane thief came to disaster here early today and fell into the clutches of the police a few hours after the plane he had stolen had encountered the top of a tree and crashed to the ground.

Frank Stroud, a veteran flier from Sioux City, Iowa, was arrested shortly after a plane belonging to W. C. Burneister had been found near the Evanston golf club with blood stains in the cockpit. Stroud confessed, according to the police, that he stole the plane with the idea of using it in a "barnstorming tour" of various towns.

Stroud was injured in the fall of the plane. He said that the radiator started smoking soon after he began his illicit flight and in trying to land he struck a tree.

NIGHT SCHOOL HAS BECOME POPULAR

Over 150 have enrolled for night school work at the local high school Thursday and Friday night of this week. In view of the fact that no campaign of advertising has been made, the enrollment is considerably larger than was expected. The great demand is for commercial subjects, including bookkeeping, typewriting, shorthand, penmanship, arithmetic and business English. In the mechanical arts, auto shop, machine shop, mechanical drawing and carpentry have proven the most popular. There have also been a large number of requests for millinery, sewing and Spanish.

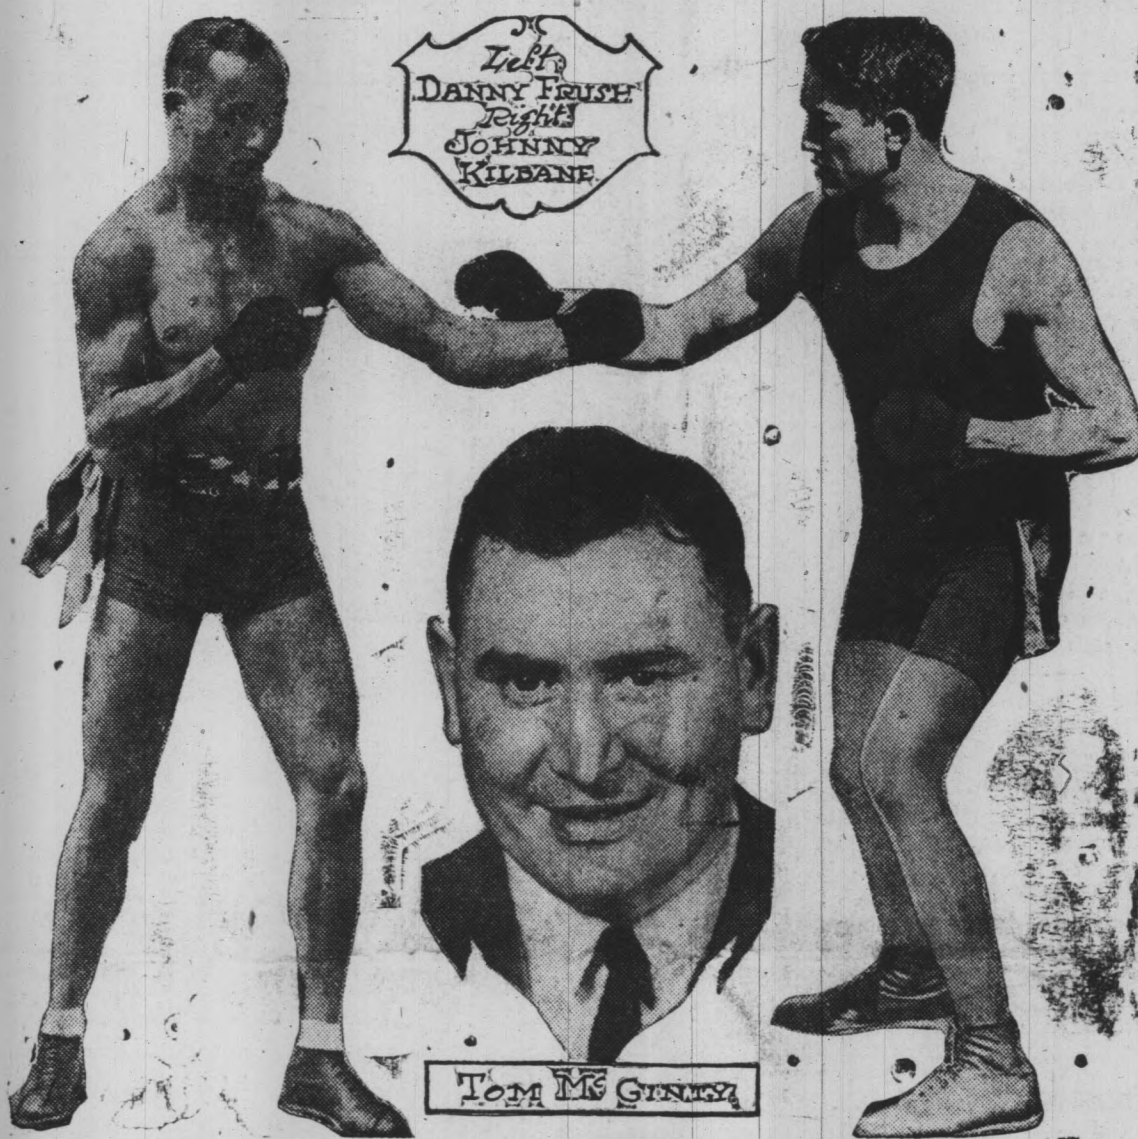

The next week will be given over to making out courses, securing teachers and making out a program of the work to be given. Regular work in the night school will begin the week of September 26. Detailed information concerning the work offered will be mailed to all who have registered and will be announced in the papers the coming week.

All who desire work in the night school and who have not as yet registered will please communicate with A. L. Ferguson as soon as possible, so that their requests may be considered in making up the courses to be offered.

H. C. L. ADVANCES AS WAGES DECLINE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—In the face of widespread unemployment and slashing wage reductions in nearly all lines of industry the cost of living mounted higher during August, it was revealed by figures made public today by the bureau of labor statistics.

The retail cost of food for the average American family increased 4.3 per cent over the preceding month of July, the figures showed.

KILBANE RETAINS FEATHERWEIGHT TITLE IN CLEVELAND BATTLE TO-DAY

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 17.—Johnny Kilbane of Cleveland knocked out Danny Frush of Baltimore in defense of his featherweight boxing title here today. The end came after 1 minute and 24 seconds at a lapse in the seventh round. Kilbane was the master of every situation after the first round. The champion fought deliberately during the early stages and his attacks were well made. In only two rounds did Frush show any marked ability.

By W. J. HUSKE
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

CLEVELAND, Sept. 17.—It will be the old, old story of youth versus age when Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, defends his title in the ring at Dunn Field here this afternoon.

Johnny Kilbane, who has made a fortune in the ring, is thirty-two—not decrepit old age, as men in other lines judge it, but for the ring an old, old man and one who gives evidence of the fact that his best fight has probably been fought.

Opposing him, and fighting for the glory and the opportunity for big money that a champion brings, is Danny Frush, of Baltimore, a youth of twenty-two, who has been climbing the heights of pugilistic fame in spectacular fashion and who was so anxious to make this match that he agreed to fight for $2,500—little more than training expenses—while his wary and experienced opponent receives $65,000—win, lose or draw.

The battle will be fought twelve rounds to a decision. Frush must make 128 pounds ringside, which is four pounds above the weight made by Kilbane when he wrestled the title from Abe Attell nine years ago.

Sports writers and sports authorities generally say Johnny Kilbane is going back. His fight of a few months ago with Sammy Jacks seemed to bear out this statement; for, while Johnny toyed with his opponent and won easily, all agreed after the bout was over that the scrap was a made-to-order "set-up" for the champ.

Danny Frush, Twenty-two, Determined to Wrest Crown from Champion in Twelve-round Bout—Decision if Fight Runs the Limit—Champ's Purse to Be $65,000, Contender's $2,500.

Critics, however, point to his fights with Benny Valger, who is said to have outpointed him at Newark last year; and Frankie Brown and Andy Chaney are both given credit for out-hitting him, but the margin in each instance was close, and there were many who maintained that he won.

In Frush Kilbane meets a tall, rangy lad, with two good hands and a good head and with enough speed to enable him to move fast both offensively and defensively. He has gone through the featherweight division like a cyclone and has victories to his credit over such lads as Andy Chaney, Kil Julian, Artie Root, Johnny Pope, Freddie Jacks, Artie O'Leary, Joe Leonard, Tommy Noble, Eddie Wallace and Texas Kid.

Kilbane, however, is extremely confident of winning. "I'll be champion a long time yet," says Johnny, with his Irish smile, but other champions have been just as confident and have been dethroned. He's a better boxer—that is unquestioned—but can he last twelve rounds?

Danny Frush, the "Limehouse Knight," who hopes to wear the laurels after September 17, is considered a very workman-like performer—a fellow who knows his job and does it well.

He is not given credit for the speed for which his older opponent was at one time noted. Johnny is a marvel of grace and springiness in the ring, but Frush is a different kind of a fighter. He goes straight at his man and stays with him, depending upon his legs only to carry him out of immediate danger when the opposing attack waxes hot. He always seems to be moving toward his man. He fights in the Leonard style.

The referee and two judges will render a decision if the bout goes the limit.

The Frush bout today marks Kilbane's return to the ring after a long period of comparative idleness. The show is being promoted by Tommy McGinty and Sammy Deutsch. Kilbane was induced to meet Frush after a long parley with various promoters. McGinty finally landed the match by outbidding the opposition, and Dunn Field today will house one of the largest fight crowds in the history of boxing in Cleveland, if the advance sale is an indication of interest in the bout.

Frush will make 126 pounds for the champion, who will enter the ring at catchweights. The bout will be the 86th Kilbane has fought in defense of his crown since winning it from Abe Attell nine years ago.

FATE OF PIRATES TO BE DECIDED TODAY

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 17.—The 1921 national league pennant hangs in the balance today and if Pittsburgh loses this afternoon's game it is almost certain that New York will wind up in first place. Today's game tells the tale, mathematically and otherwise, to all intents and purposes.

Manager George Gibson will not yet admit he's beaten. He is going to shove his whole stack on the baseball table this afternoon. His last hope is centered on "Babe" Adams, veteran pitcher who seldom loses. There is more tension in Pittsburgh today than if this afternoon's game were the deciding one of a world's series. Wehl will probably pitch for New York.

The greatest crowd that ever witnessed a Pittsburgh baseball game will be at Forbes Field today.

AEROPLANE LIQUOR SMUGGLING CHARGED

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 17.—Six prominent business and professional men will be charged in federal court here today with transporting liquor and narcotics from Mexico by airplane and in automobiles. They were arrested yesterday.

Federal officers said they believe these men to be ringleaders in a gigantic liquor smuggling enterprise.

AMERICAN YEOMEN MEET

A very pleasant affair was enjoyed at the meeting of the Brotherhood of American Yeomen at Yeoman hall, 1500 South San Fernando road, last night.

Three Masked Men Loot Treasury of Sells-Floto Organization and Escape With $30,000 After Gun Fight—Most of Plunder Secured by Them Was Cash

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 17.—Nearly $30,000 was secured by three unmasked bandits who held up the treasurer and eight other members of the Sells-Floto circus after the show here last night. No trace had been found, up to an early hour today, of the robbers, who escaped in an automobile. The treasurer, four men and four women belonging to the circus, were riding with the money on a truck, being en route from the circus grounds after the show to the treasury car in the railroad yards when the bandits fired two shots and leaped out of a clump of woods. None of the circus people were armed and no resistance was offered the highwaymen. Of the $30,000 loot $4,000 was in cash and the rest was in drafts and checks.

BRITISH REFUSE TO RAILROAD EMPLOYEES ANSWER LATEST IRISH NOTE FAVOR A STRIKE AGAINST AWARD

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Premier Lloyd George this afternoon replied to Eamonn de Valera, saying a new conference is impossible so long as the Irish claim that Ireland is an independent sovereign state.

The communication was in reply to de Valera's telegram of yesterday indicating a willingness on the part of the Sinn Fein to resume negotiations.

De Valera's telegram to the premier last night had opened fresh hopes that the premier would immediately re-issue invitations to a conference. The delay in the premier's answer was taken to mean that Lloyd George did not feel empowered to do this on the basis suggested by the Sinn Fein chief, namely, with both parties absolutely uncommitted, without the full sanction of his fellow ministers.

By EARLE C. REEVES
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Sept. 17.—The new Irish crisis is destined to "hang fire," at least until Tuesday. It was announced at No. 10 Downing street—the Government's headquarters—early this afternoon that no reply would be sent to Eamonn de Valera's latest communication to Lloyd George until after the cabinet meeting Tuesday. It was announced that the meeting will, probably be held here in London, which means that the Premier, who has been indisposed, is better and probably will return from Inverness, Scotland, on Monday.

RIFLES CRACK IN BELFAST STREETS

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 17.—That an overwhelming majority of the members of the "big four" railroad brotherhoods favor a strike was the declaration of Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and spokesman for his three associates, this morning.

"I am satisfied that less than 2 per cent of the membership favor acceptance of the award of the Railway Labor Board," he stated.

No action will be taken on the matter, he added, until the brotherhood leaders meet in Chicago, October 10, to canvass the returns.

WILD NIGHT RIDE PREVENTS LYNCHING

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Sept. 17.—With the arrival here today of Sheriff Boyes and Deputy Sheriff Dixon, bringing as a prisoner Farlan Feldenhausen, said to be a paroled convict from San Quentin, it became known that only a wild midnight ride by the two officers prevented a lynching in the lumber country back of Duncan mills.

Feldenhausen is alleged to have been pressing his attentions on the wife of a woodsman, Thomas Leggett. Spurned, he is alleged to have fired a shot at her. Word passed through the lumber camps and the lynching party was formed to search for Feldenhausen. Word was telephoned the sheriff, who raced to the scene and succeeded in arresting Feldenhausen and spiriting him away before the mob found him.

LITZENBERG MAKES GOOD WITH AUTO WASH RACK

F. E. Litzenberg, proprietor of the Glendale auto wash rack, 109 West Wilson, whose place of business has been open only about one week, says that he is more than satisfied with the way his business is growing.

In fact, he has had trouble in taking care of the rush of trade. He says, also, that beginning Monday he will have a valuable addition to his force in John E. Smith, an expert Simonizer, who for the past five years has been associated with the Danny Auto Laundry of Los Angeles, the largest auto laundry west of Chicago. One of the important features about Mr. Litzenberg's establishment is that he is turning out nothing but the highest quality of work.

CHICKERING PIANO IS BOUGHT FOR LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

There is one man in Glendale who slept peacefully last night for the first time in weeks—Mr. Hurd, piano dispenser for the Glendale Music Co.—because the Glendale Union High School found it impossible to resist buying the American piano, the Chickering.

After careful investigation and tireless effort on the part of Mrs. Gibson, head of the high school music department, assisted by Principal Moyse, it was decided to purchase the Chickering piano, owing to the necessity of having a piano that would hold its tone and stand up under school usage, and to also have a piano that an artist would be proud to use. Salmacia Bros. are particularly pleased over the sale of the Chickering, as it was selected only after a comparison with every make of high-grade piano in Southern California.

FULLERTON SUNFLOWER CROP

(By International News Service)
FULLERTON, Sept. 17—Sunflowers which are said to rival the largest that Kansas ever produced are now growing on the Fullerton municipal farm. The stalks range from ten to twenty feet in height and from one to four inches in diameter. How to permanently get rid of the crop is a problem, as a team cannot get through the patch to plow them under.

NEW CLETRAC OFFERED BY HARRY E. WHITE INC.

Distributors of This Farmers' Aid for Los Angeles and Kern
Counties Announce Price at $845—This Tractor
Is Capable and Can Be Operated Cheaply

The Cletrac is a chrome steel tractor which plows 6 to 8 acres a day and does all the other farm work including the cultivating of corn, cotton and other row crops.

A new tractor and tractor cultivator which in point of engineering development and adaptability mark a decided advance in power farming equipment are announced by The Cleveland Tractor Company, makers of Cletrac Tank-Type Tractors.

It has been known in the trade for some time that this new tractor and cultivator were about ready to market but no adequate idea of the many great improvements which have been made both in design and construction has been made public.

Cletrac Model "F", which is the designation given to the new tractor and the Cletrac Cultivator will have an appeal both to the dealer and the farmer which cannot fail to stimulate the whole power farming business.

A Tractor of Engineering Excellence Approaching the New Cletrac from the standpoint of the engineer it will be apparent that while Mr. Rollin H. White and his associate engineers have produced in this tractor a machine of new and unique design and have developed still further Mr. White's original idea of using high grade steels to minimize weight, there is nothing freakish in this new model and only tried and tested engineering principles have been employed.

Its simple and accessible design and chrome steel construction stand out as features of major importance and point the way to the production of a tractor of unquestionable quality at the low price of $845 list. At the same time these new features of engineering excellence foretell an ever widening market for the dealer and greater profits for the user.

At first glance it is apparent that Cletrac Model "F" has been simplified to a degree never before found in any tractor. For example, there is no main frame, the motor, transmission and differential assemblies being so designed that they bolt together into one solid unit from front to rear, eliminating vibration and insuring rigidity and alignment of the power path at all times. Compactness too, results from this simplified design and contributes its share to the reduction of size, weight and price without the sacrifice of power and serviceability which farm use demands.

One looks in vain for oil cups and grease cups. They have all been eliminated leaving the filler pipe to the combined motor and gear case as the only point requiring attention from the operator. The oil in this case supplies lubrication to every part of the tractor which requires it. To those already experienced in the sale and use of farm tractors this improved design will come as a distinct relief from the great problem of proper lubrication.

Examining the details more closely it is found that the motor, which has four cylinders of 3 1/4 inch bore and 4 1/2 inch stroke, is provided with four crank shaft bearings in place of the usual three. This so completely eliminates motor vibration that wear on the motor, and in fact on the whole tractor, is reduced to the minimum. The gear case cover on the front, which also acts as a supporting member for the power and driving units, encloses the gears for the water pump, fan, governor and magneto giving a simple, self-contained motor that requires little attention from the operator. positive gear drive of fan and water pump is an important feature.

Turning to the transmission, gear shift, steering and differential assemblies, these are found so conveniently located in the large, rear housing that any part can be reached quickly and easily without disturbing other parts, a feature of inestimable worth when making adjustments during the rush seasons of farm work. By the removal of a few cap screws the entire gear mechanism is exposed and made accessible.

PINEAPPLE SHORTAGE LOOMS

(By International News Service)
HONOLULU, Sept. 17.—A pack of 5,884,000 cases of canned Hawaiian pineapples for the 1921 season is the advance estimate given out by officials of the Pineapple Packer's Association, in Honolulu. Last year's pack ran over 6,000,000 cases, but poor growing conditions, combined with labor troubles, are cutting down the pack for the current year.

As a result of the shortage as compared with last year, while an extensive advertising campaign is being conducted on the mainland, a scarcity of "pines" is apt to be felt on the market before the 1922 crop is in cans, local pineapple men predict.

and from this point of view I expect to have a whole army of motoring advertisements before I have been here a great deal longer. I believe in Glendale and I feel sure that she has an exceedingly bright future before her. My belief along this line is supported by the costly improvements I have installed."

In addition to carrying Ventura gasoline and a complete line of oils and greases, Mr. Hooper maintains a strictly up-to-the-minute vulcanizing department, in which everything in the way of caring for tires and tubes is done. A large assortment of Kelly-Springfield and Michelin tires are always kept on hand, while the Vesta storage battery, and a complete line of accessories are to be found there. Ignition is another point on which this firm will specialize. Trained experts along the ignition line handle this end of the firm's activities.

BOOST THE GLENDALE LIBRARY

At the meeting of the Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations, held recently at the intermediate school, the president, Mrs. John Robert White, reported the increase by the City Council of the budget for the Glendale Public Library, for which the federation formally petitioned.

"We cannot know that its action was wholly due to the request we proffered, but we can feel that it helped," Mrs. White said.

The federation represents a membership of some 2500 women, and when it speaks its suggestions are received with respect.

For several years the library budget has been so small that little was left over and above the cost of maintenance for the purchase of books. It was not keeping pace with the libraries of cities of its class, and the mothers felt it was a poor place to economize. They registered their protest after the library board had asked for all it thought it was likely to get, with the result that an appropriation has been made which, if wisely expended, will in the course of time place upon the shelves the late books and the books not so late which should have been there long ago.

So great has been the dearth of current books in the Glendale library that not a few citizens have taken out memberships in Los Angeles libraries to get the reading matter they wanted.

Mrs. Danford, the librarian, has been a wonder in making the funds reach and in stocking the shelves with the books of reference desired by the many organizations that patronize the institution, and she is happier than anyone else over the turn of events.

Real Estate Review

With $27,500 worth of building permits issued during the past 24 hours the total for the month has reached $270,085, and the total for the year is $3,175,279. This yearly total is for the past eight months and exceeds the record of last year during the entire twelve months by more than $38,000.

Of the eleven permits issued today six of them were for two men. Three permits to build houses on West Salem costing $3000 each were issued to Henry A. Michel and each permit called for a 5-room house and a garage. W. J. Barnas was issued three permits to build 5-room houses and garages at a cost of $3,000 each. One of these houses is to be on West Doran and the other two are to be on West Salem.

Glendale today is a city badly in need of more homes. True, building in this city is going ahead at a rapid rate, but it is still unable to keep up with the marvelous growth of the city. With building permits averaging $10,000 daily, there are still many people who work in Glendale and want to move here and make this city their place of residence, but are forced to live in Los Angeles because there are no houses available.

Small houses for rent and furnished apartments are, at present, the big need of this city. Glendale is at present recognized as the fastest growing city in the United States. This growth would double if its housing conditions were better. Not only people who are employed in Glendale are seeking homes here, but men employed in Los Angeles are anxious to move to Glendale and give their families the benefits of the even climate and civic conditions that make Glendale the ideal home city.

The owners of vacant property in Glendale would enhance the value of their property if, instead of holding their vacant lots, waiting for values to increase, they would build four and five room residences for renting purposes. Not only would they enhance the value of their property but they would be doing their bit toward helping Glendale in its growth and advancement.

There are people coming to this city every day seeking homes or places to rent. They make the rounds of the real estate offices and at the end of the day are forced to return to Los Angeles, after hearing the same reply in each office: "We have nothing to rent."

Houses built in Glendale are good investments and will pay a steady income. Real estate dealers could rent every house listed with them, and still the demand would exceed the supply. In the absence of houses to rent, a proper hotel is now most appealing.

Anthony Ambrosini is making good his promise to the people of Glendale five years ago, that some day he would build a magnificent hotel here. It has long been the dream of Mr. Ambrosini to build a hotel in this city that would be a credit to a larger city. He had hoped to carry on the work of erecting a hotel alone, but owing to the increased cost of building materials and to speed the work of constructing the hotel, Mr. Ambrosini has organized a company and plans for the building are completed. He said today that the Ambrosini Hotel Co., a corporation, is formed with a capital stock of $500,000, with Anthony Ambrosini as president, Theodore Menk, his son-in-law, secretary and Herman Nelson treasurer. The board of directors is composed of Anthony Ambrosini, Theodore Menk, Lewis Clouse, Fred M. Chandler and Owen C. Emery.

It is expected that the entire capital of the company, $500,000, will be used in the construction of the hotel and that the furnishings will cost several thousands more.

The building is to be six stories high with a frontage of 177 feet on Glendale avenue and 235 feet on Broadway. It will be a steel and concrete class A structure, and absolutely fireproof.

The ground floor will have 13 store rooms, as well as the hotel lobby and office. On the second floor there will be 50 guest rooms and a dining room 50 by 75 feet. The remaining four stories will have 64 rooms each, making a total of 305 guest rooms. All rooms will be single rooms. There will be no suites.

These are the plans for the new hotel as outlined at present, but these arrangements may be changed, said Mr. Ambrosini, and devote the entire second floor exclusively to rooms, allowing the dining room, reception room and possibly a ballroom, to occupy the entire sixth floor. Electric elevators will be installed in the building.

According to Mr. Ambrosini, work will be started on the new hotel just as soon as a charter is received, and an attempt will be made to have the store rooms on the ground floor and the first two stories ready for occupancy by January 1, in order to accommodate the winter tourists. The other stories will be completed as soon as possible and as soon as one floor is ready, it will be occupied.

An effort will be made by the company to lease the hotel to some expert hotel manager, says Mr. Ambrosini. If this cannot be done the company will conduct the hotel.

Anticipating the rush for Glendale real estate and preparing, in advance, to care for his clients, Edwin F. Kulp, with offices at 205-A North Brand, has made an addition to his staff of salesmen. C. E. Babcock, 719 South Maryland avenue, becomes a member of Mr. Kulp's sales force today.

Mr. Babcock is well versed in Glendale real estate property values, having lived here for several years and in that time building and selling many homes. One of the latest sales by Mr. Babcock is his own residence at 719 South Maryland. This home was sold last week.

The addition of Mr. Babcock to the Kulp sales force completes a trio that for real knowledge of realty conditions in this vicinity is hard to beat. The other members of the trio are Edwin F. Kulp and I. C. Stone.

built for rent. He is just finishing an attractive 2-story, 6-room house on Highland avenue, south of Kenneth road for J. G. Huntley.

He is also finishing an addition at 318 Myrtle for Miss Yarnell. Other jobs are a 6-room house at 1231 Viola avenue for E. Y. Siddell, a 6-room house at 125 West Maple for Hazard & Crowell; a 6-room residence for Mr. Ripley at 121 West Garfield. He is preparing plans for a 4-room house on North Central, and is negotiating for the erection of three bungalows for another party.

So great has been the building demand that he has had to turn away contracts.

BROADWAY P. T. A.

At the meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association, at which Mrs. Bowlus was made president to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. F. E. Wilkinson, committee chairmen were announced as follows:

Program, Mrs. T. A. Lewis; patriotism, Mrs. A. J. Van Wie; Publicity, Mrs. W. C. Reith; philanthropy, Mrs. Barron; ways and means and hospitality, Mrs. H. H. Jepson; membership, Mrs. H. H. Jepson; finance, Mrs. F. E. Wilkinson; social, Mrs. A. Martinez.

The following room mothers were appointed, with the understanding that they will cooperate in the work of the membership committee:

Mrs. E. Ginnell, kindergarten; Mrs. Pullen, grade 1B; Mrs. A. Barnes, grade 1A; Mrs. R. Griffin, second grade; Mrs. A. J. Van Wie, third grade; Mrs. Barron, fourth grade; Mrs. S. Kane, fifth grade; Mrs. Lindrum, sixth grade; Mrs. F. W. Dow, ungraded room.

At the entertainment to be given by the organization next Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the school auditorium, the program will be furnished by Mr. Rudeen, the bird man, who is described as "the peer of all whistlers and song bird mimics." There will also be films giving scenes in the life of Abraham Lincoln. The proceeds for the improvement of the Broadway grounds.

The picture will be free dancing. The picture will be shown from 8 to 9 o'clock, after which the chairs will be cleared away and the music will be started. Prizes will be given to the best dancers. For the dancing, the wonderful Magnavox, loaned by the Kenny Music Company, will be used.

There will be absolutely no charge made for the entertainment features to be put on by this company tonight. Everyone is welcome, and all those attending are promised the finest kind of a time.

The resident of Glendale who has never seen an automobile do the spread-eagle, the queen's cross, the dip, the shimmy and the tango, should journey up to the headquarters of the Glendale Hudson Motor Company, 230 North Brand, at 8 o'clock tonight.

"The Trail of the Arrow," a motion picture that is being put on in the garage of that establishment, shows an Essex car do all these things, and more. It shows, also, that all girls are not "dubs" when it comes to driving an automobile, for it is probable that not one man in five hundred could pilot a car as cleverly as do the pilots of the car shown in the picture.

This picture is the most remarkable of anything of its kind ever shown in Glendale. The country that is covered by these two girls would raise the hair of the most daring, and the way they tackle the obstacles that arise stamps them as the grittiest of the gritty.

The picture will be shown for the last time tonight. In addition to the showing of the

POET OF THE PEOPLE TO BE VERDUGO VISITOR

MRS. F. P. NEWPORT

James W. Foley, poet of the people and writer of verse that gets into the hearts of his readers, is to be guest of honor at a dinner party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Newport this evening at their home, 610 South Serano street, preceding the performance of the "Persian Garden" in Verdugo Woodlands, which the party will attend.

Covers will also be laid for Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, Miss Dorothy Walker, Robert Jarvis, Mrs. Myra Nye, and Mrs. Loughborough and son. Mrs. Newport is prominent in club and philanthropic circles and is one of the active directors of the Lark

Ellen home for newsboys. She is also an enthusiastic patron of music and has been tremendously interested in the production of the "Persian Garden," which is regarded by musical critics as a notable event on this coast. It is drawing a big attendance of musicians and music lovers of Los Angeles and surrounding cities.

Mr. Foley lectured in Glendale last winter under the auspices of the literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. His home is in Eagle Rock and he feels a warm neighborly interest in Glendale and in its development which he has been closely watching for years.

This is the first time the tournament has been conducted west of Chicago, and the amateur players who have along the Pacific seaboard and in far Western States have taken advantage of an opportunity to convince Eastern players that distance alone has prevented them from taking rank with the foremost amateurs of the nation.

Ten of the finest Pacific Coast golfers are here to compete and they hope to qualify enough players so that a question can never be raised concerning the quality of golf played by the followers of the game in the Far West.

It is the presence of these Pacific Coast players which gives the championship its national importance, for all of the leading Eastern and Middle Western stars are here. To cope with the golfers from the Pacific are the best of the lot from New York, Massachusetts and practically every State in the Union in which golf is played extensively.

International Aspect Also
Nor is the international aspect entirely lacking. Willie Hunter, winner of the British amateur championship, at Holyoke in June, and Tommy Armour, the brilliant Scottish player, are here to represent Old World golf.

The tournament has drawn heavily from States which have heretofore been unable to send representatives on the long journeys to the Eastern courses where it has been the custom to contest for the national title. This is especially true of representatives of public links golf, who have done well of late years in Western competition but have lacked the means of travel to the national.

Yet with all the new blood here at St. Louis, those who follow diligently along the trail of big league golf feel that one of the old standbys, such as Chick Evans, the present title holder; Francis Ouimet, of Boston, or Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, will come through. Those three are placed at seven to one against the field, and odds on any other contestant are not better than fifteen to one.

Armour, of Scotland, Feared
Hunter, the British champion, is not feared. It is felt that the numerical odds against him are far too great for him to hope to win. If he gets through both the preliminary and qualifying round today and the final qualifying round Monday he will then find himself engaged in 36-hole matches against the pick of America's amateurs, and on a course which is better adapted for the American pitch shots than for the English run-up shots.

Tommy Armour, the Scotchman, is most feared of the two leading foreign players, for Armour has played more golf in America in the past two years than in the British Isles, and he has the benefit of having played last year in the American championship on Long Island, where he was the only British player to qualify. He lasted in that championship until he was beaten by Francis Ouimet, who was the runner-up to Evans in the final round.

Foremost of the Pacific Coast players is Heinrich Schmidt, of the Aberdeen Club. Schmidt is not unknown to Eastern golfers for he formerly resided in Massachusetts and as a schoolboy won the Massachusetts amateur championship when he defeated Francis Ouimet in the final round.

Next to Walter Travis, who once won the British amateur title, Schmidt stands alone with Fred J. Wright, Jr., of Boston, as the Americans who have gone as far as the fifth round in the British championship. Schmidt was defeated by Harold Hilton, at St. Andrews, in a match in 1913 which went to the twentieth hole. Hilton then won the title.

Schmidt will be ably supported in this tournament by Chandler Egan, a former winner of the national amateur championship; Dr. Robert Hunter, Pacific Coast member of the American International team, and George von Elm, of Salt Lake City.

For the East there will be the old line of reliables, such as Ouimet, Jerry Travers, Jesse Guilford, Wood Platt, W. C. Fownes, Maxwell Marston, Jesse Sweetser, Oswald Kirkby and John Anderson.

The Middle West will have Chick Evans and Bob Gardner, while Bobby Jones is always capable of representing the South.

FOOTHILL CLUB IS ENTERTAINED BY MRS. BEGGS

Friday was a red-letter day for the Foothill Club, which was entertained by Mrs. Charles H. Beggs, at her beautiful home, 1107 North Louise street, with an elaborate seven-course luncheon, at which her sister, Mrs. J. W. Beard, was the guest of honor.

Glistening with silver and cut-glass, the beautifully appointed table was a pretty sight. A red and green color scheme featured the affair, places being indicated by boutonnières of red organdie roses and gold leaves, on which were written the names of the guests. Red balloons in animal shapes constituted the favors. Centering the table was a crystal vase filled with red flowers and twined with asparagus fern.

It was quite an innovation over the customary meeting, at which refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon, and was therefore the more enjoyed.

Following the luncheon was a brief business session, over which the president, Mrs. William Clifton Cutler, presided, and at which Mrs. Nelson, of North Brand boulevard, was admitted to membership.

This being the first fall meeting, plans for the club year were discussed, especially charitable work for Christmas.

The balance of the afternoon was devoted to visiting and needlework for the philanthropies in which the club is interested.

The ladies who enjoyed this delightful function were Mrs. W. C. Cutler, Mrs. Perce Curtis, Mrs. W. E. Hewitt, Mrs. Alfred Priest, Mrs. J. A. Christy, Mrs. J. I. Wernette, Mrs. E. B. Wyman, Mrs. N. Dana, Mrs. Mary J. Oliver, Mrs. Julius Kranz, Mrs. C. H. Beggs, the hostess, and Mrs. J. W. Beard, the guest of honor.

HUPMOBILE ENTERS LOCAL AUTO MART; STRONG AGENCY

Bartlett & French, the automobile firm located at the corner of Harvard street and Brand boulevard, who, since opening their establishment about two years ago, have been distributors for the Chandler and Cleveland cars in Glendale, have just succeeded in securing the agency for the Hupmobile in the San Fernando valley.

For some time this firm has been endeavoring to secure this agency and that they have at last succeeded should be of unusual interest to present and prospective owners of all makes of cars in Glendale.

This firm will maintain the headquarters for the distribution of the Hup in San Fernando valley at its present location in this city, while branches will be established within a short time in San Fernando and Burbank and possibly one or two of the other towns of the valley.

Early Glendale Boosters
Messrs. Lanier Bartlett and James H. French, who constitute this firm, have been Glendale boosters ever since they struck town. In fact, they are boosting harder today than they ever did before. Mr. Bartlett said this morning:

"We have great faith in Glendale. This city has grown faster than anyone could possibly have expected, and let me tell you something, she has not stopped advancing by any means."

"Referring to the automobile business, I might say that it is good. It is a great deal better here than it is in most sections of the country. While the residents of other sections are struggling along the people of Glendale are buying automobiles."

Critical Buyers
"But they are not buying machines in the same manner that they employed during the war. In those days they purchased a car without knowing or even thinking what they were getting. But things have changed. The buyer of an automobile these days considers the machine as an investment, not a plaything."

"They are taking account of the actual quality that is in the machine. It is the service, more than looks, that they are after. The rate of depreciation is another thing they are considering. The car that depreciates the slowest is generally the cheapest to maintain, and that is the car that the people, these days, are striving to get."

Garage Maintained
A completely-equipped garage is maintained by Bartlett & French, this being located immediately at the rear of the spacious salesroom. A large assortment of accessories, oils, greases, gasoline, tires, etc., is also kept on hand by this firm.

Both Mr. Bartlett and Mr. French believe that the Hupmobile is the car that many of the Glendale people have been waiting for, although some of them do not at this time realize that fact. It comes completely equipped and its regular equipment includes cord tires, motorometer, windshield cleaner, separate lighting system for the tail light, etc. In every particular the Hup is right up to the minute. This firm wants the Hupmobile owners of the valley to make its establishment their headquarters. Nothing would please them better than to be of service to the motorists of Glendale.

SEATTLE MAN REGISTERS
George R. Miller of Seattle, Wn., registered at the Glendale Chamber of Commerce this morning. Mr. Miller is a prominent business man of Seattle, and he is looking for a location for his business in Glendale.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and
Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

MOTOR HOSPITAL IS INNOVATION FOR GLENDALE

The Westinghouse Battery Service Company, 233-35 South Brand boulevard is one of the most completely equipped service garages in the city. In fact it is more than a garage, it is an automobile hospital.

This firm is a branch of the Westinghouse Battery Company of Pennsylvania, and is one of the many stations established throughout the United States to give service to users of the Westinghouse battery.

Several new features have been added to this service by the enterprising manager of the station in Glendale. One of these innovations is the system that makes it impossible for the motorist to neglect his battery. Every two weeks a post card is mailed to every user of Westinghouse batteries in this district, reminding him that he has not been in to have the water replenished and the battery inspected. This service is proving of value to the motorists.

Another feature of this station is the installation of a repair garage by J. V. St. Clair, agent for the Velle car. Mr. St. Clair is a mechanic of many years experience and is equipped to repair any make of car.

An electrical department has also been established under the name of the United Motor Service. Parts for all ignition systems are carried in stock and installation service can be had here at all times. This department is owned and operated by C. A. Wishart & Son and the general manager of the department is Harvey Gill.

The building in itself is unique in design. There is a large concrete platform in front for the use of motorists that have an aversion to driving into a garage. To the rear of this platform is the electrical service station and garage. Every detail of the building is modern throughout and first class service is rendered in all departments.

"HELL DIGGERS" AT PALACE GRAND

The final showings of Wallace Reid's excellent picture, "The Hell Diggers," will be had at the Palace Grand Theatre today. This is a delightful Paramount photoplay and, aside from its dramatic flavor, there is much relishable comedy. Lois Wilson, a charming actress, plays opposite Mr. Reid.

The remainder of the big bill includes the fourth episode of the animal picture, which the kiddies are following with increasing enthusiasm. A Tony Sarg's comic forces a laugh out of the most confirmed grouches, and the Paramount Cartoon will make you forget your troubles while watching the hard luck of "Felix."

You know by this time that the music is unexcelled and you may always expect a pleasing program from Henri Monnet at the Wurlitzer.

GUESTS FROM INDIANA

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Phillips of Greencastle, Ind., who are visiting in Los Angeles, spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ravenscroft, 232 South Brand boulevard. After a delightful luncheon they took an automobile trip to Devil's Gate bridge, through Altadena, Pasadena, Eagle Rock and Glendale. The visitors voted this one of the finest days of their trip and will leave for San Jose next week to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ellis, before returning to their Indiana home.

H. W. MYERS, GRAND OLD MAN OF THIS CITY, IS 89

Hale and vigorous as a man in middle life, H. W. Myers celebrated his 89th birthday last evening with a dinner at his home, 1203 South Central avenue, this city.

He is an enthusiastic and successful gardener in spite of his years and is eagerly looking forward to attending the San Fernando Valley Fair next week to see what other people are doing in horticulture.

All the vegetables and fruit served at the party were grown by the host. A feature of the feast was a handsome birthday cake adorned with pink candles, arranged to form the figures "89."

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. John T. Cate, Misses Ida and Harriet Myers, daughters of the honoree; Mrs. W. H. Hillman of Tulare and sons, Eugene, Richard and Donald; Dr. A. M. Duncan, brother-in-law of the host, and his daughter, Miss Carol Duncan, and the host and hostess.

BOY COASTERS WARNED

Mrs. Rothfuss, 1503 Rock Glen, reported to the police yesterday that several boys were in the habit of riding bicycles and coasters along the sidewalks near her home. A warning has been issued that boys who continue to ride bicycles and coasters on the sidewalks of the city will be taken into court and punished.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that meat forms uric acid, which almost paralyzes the kidneys in the effort to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush out the body's urinous waste, get four kidneys of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

'THE COUNTY FAIR' PROVES A SUCCESS

"The County Fair" staged by the Epworth League of the First Methodist Church, Friday night, was one of the jolliest affairs that any of the participants, who numbered about 250, ever enjoyed. It took place in the banquet hall of the church and yielded about $150 for the fund the league has undertaken to raise to provide a dental chair for Dr. L. Bittner, medical missionary in Sumatra.

The program opened with orchestral numbers by the Sunday School orchestra, followed by vocal solos by Miss Marie Oliver. A play entitled, "Courtship Under Difficulties" was then presented, the cast being:

Old Snubblerton—R. Kenneth Crist. Jones—Elwood Ingledue. Prudence Angelina Winterbottom—Helen Ingledue.

J. B. Clark took the part of a rube policeman and announced the county fair at the conclusion of the play.

The audience then inspected the various booths, side shows and concessions, which were alluringly labeled with such signs as: "A Shocking Performance," "See the Black Kids," "Over the Falls," "Chamber of Horrors," "The Dancing Midgets," "Baby Boo," etc.

There was a thrilling and realistic aeroplane ride with a leap for life, a fortune telling booth, and a hot dog booth placarded with "Check your animals here." Izzy had an auction sale, and the concessions for candy, ice cream and cake, serpentine and "ticklers" did a lively business.

Elwood Ingledue headed the general committee of arrangements, Miss Alice Lookabaugh directed the play and the program, William and Charles Rich planned the side shows, and Miss Dorothy Hamilton was chairman of concessions.

C. OF C. WORKERS RELATE TALES OF DRIVE SUCCESS

A rousing meeting of the workers in the Chamber of Commerce membership drive was held last night at White Inn, corner Glendale avenue and Brand boulevard. Several of the members of all the committees that are active in this work were present and the light of conquest was in the eyes of everyone. The spirit that was shown by the different committees who spoke answered very conclusively the query, "Why is this membership drive proving so successful?"

Promptly at 6 o'clock another of those excellent White Inn dinners was served. Mrs. Jack Thomas, proprietor of this establishment, is making a great many friends by the manner in which she is taking care of the workers of the C. of C. at these drive-planning dinners.

Following the repeat of the evening developed into an old-fashioned experience meeting. All of the little troubles and amusing incidents that the various workers have experienced thus far in the drive were recounted for the benefit of the other workers. Assistant Secretary E. F. Sanders was called upon to give advice in a number of instances along the salesmanship line, which he did in a very satisfactory manner.

The short and extremely inspiring address of Assistant Secretary Sanders was the first on the program.

"The greatest need of the chamber of commerce at this time," said Mr. Sanders, "is new members. I wish I could impress upon you folks just how badly the chamber needs a much larger enrollment. You would be surprised to know how much more powerful the chamber has become by the addition of the two hundred new members that have joined during the last month and a half. Secretary Rhoades can do twice the work and the Chamber of Commerce carries twice the influence now that it did before this drive for members was started."

Need of Organization

"There are few people who know how important the chamber of commerce is to any city. It stands for improvement from the moment it is created. We could tell you of many improvements that the Glendale Chamber of Commerce has secured or assisted in securing for this city. For instance, there is the first unit of the city sewer system, which is about to be installed. Secretary Rhoades is personally responsible for that improvement. It is a result of a personal house to house canvas made by him. And there are many other improvements that I could enumerate."

"The chamber of commerce of Glendale is getting to be a powerful body. Even the city council has taken notice of that fact, and it is coming to the chamber for advice and council."

"The most important thing to be announced tonight is that we have decided to cut all boundary lines. Heretofore there has been four sections, but from now on the members of the committees will be permitted to go anywhere they please, providing there is a new member in sight. This will give everyone more room in which to work and it is expected that even better results will be obtained."

Every Man's Work

Dr. Albert Vack, who is working on one of the committees, reported that there is a prevailing idea that the chamber of commerce is a rich man's organization—that it is intended only for business and professional men and not for the working man. Also, that many workers are reluctant to join because they understand that the C. of C. is against the different labor unions.

Stands for Progress

"The chamber of commerce stands for better streets, a better street lighting system, better sanitary conditions, for better moral and physical conditions in general. It stands for the man who is willing to work for his community and against the fellow who wants to take out and put nothing back. The Glendale Chamber of Commerce is neither for nor against the working man and his union. It is strictly on the fence. It cannot be for or against any organization or body. When it begins to favor one side it ceases to function as an ideal chamber of commerce. I have little patience for the man who says the chamber of commerce does not want him. The trouble is that he does not want the chamber."

Southern Pacific Station

The matter of taking the Southern Pacific station from the south end of town was brought up. Mrs. E. W. Richardson, a chairman of one of the campaign committees, wanted to know the facts concerning this matter.

"Is the chamber of commerce trying to take the Southern Pacific depot from the south end of town or is it not?" she asked.

Mr. Rhoades answered: "The chamber of commerce is not trying to take the Southern Pacific

The New MODEL "F"

CLETRAC

$845 TANK-TYPE TRACTOR

COMPLETE--
F. O. B. Cleveland

The new Tank-Type Tractor that does every farming job including CULTIVATING of corn and cotton and other row crops. Plows 6 to 8 acres a day. Chrome steel construction—weighs only 1820 pounds. Automatically lubricated—every part easily accessible.

We Will Exhibit and Demonstrate This Tractor
at the San Fernando Valley Fair
All Next Week at San Fernando, California

CLETRAC F is the tractor that farmers everywhere have been waiting for since the beginning of the tractor industry. CULTIVATES successfully, quickly and easily ALL FARM ROW CROPS—entirely eliminating the need of horses for cultivation.

All Kinds of Work

Cletrac F handles ALL farm jobs. Plows 6 to 8 acres a day—discs or harrows 15 to 20—handles any hauling job and all your ordinary belt work.

Cultivates 10 to 20 Acres a Day

In two minutes you can attach the new Cletrac Cultivator to Cletrac F—and you have a power cultivator that will cultivate 10 to 20 acres per day of any farm row crop. Unlike every other tractor, Cletrac F TRAVELS BETWEEN THE ROWS—applies power from BEHIND—lets the operator sit comfortably in the tractor seat looking AHEAD at his work instead of straight down. Accommodates any type of shovel, sweep or weeder. Works in any corn up to 60 inches high.

Chrome Steel Construction

Chrome Steel—the toughest, hardest material obtainable, and capable of standing the most sudden strains and severe punishment, is used for parts subject to wear in construction of Model F Cletrac.

Compact Design—Low Price

The unusually low price of Cletrac F is possible because it combines unique engineering principles. Here is a tractor with a 4-cylinder, kerosene burning motor that plows at 3 miles an hour, with variable speeds of from 1 to 3 1/2 miles. Yet it is so thrifty and compactly designed that it weighs only 1820 pounds and measures only 83 inches in length, 50 inches in height and 32 inches in width.

Simple—Carefree—Accessible

You have never seen a tractor more simply designed—one less free from the need of attention. A few minutes of practice and you have mastered its operation. Every working part is quickly accessible—you can make any adjustment without the assistance of an expert.

Automatic Oiling

Cletrac F lubricates itself. You pour oil in the case and the self-oiling system supplies every working part. No grease or oil cups to fill.

The New Tank-Type Cletrac Model F Places at Your Disposal a Tractor That Is Without Equal for Day-In-and-Day-Out, All-Job Usefulness, Dependability and Flexibility. For Utility, Quality and Price—$845.00 F. O. B. Cleveland—Cletrac F Is An Unprecedented Value depot away from the southern part of the city. What the chamber is trying to do is to have the S. P. company build a station that is really in keeping with the city at the intersection of Park avenue and the Southern Pacific tracks. The chamber is tired of having everyone alighting from the Southern Pacific trains immediately stared in the face upon doing so by a bunch of back yards, and those coming by way of the Southern Pacific are tired of swimming through a mud-puddle during the rain season.

"We will do everything we can to get the Southern Pacific depot for Glendale. A party recently wanting to come to Glendale from Bakersfield had to get off the train at Burbank and come from there via street car. The station agent at Bakersfield did not know there was any such place as Glendale on the map so far as that railroad was concerned. The Park avenue intersection was selected because it is midway between the two sections of the city."

Mrs. Biggs Retires

On account of the illness of a child of Mrs. Margaret I. Biggs (one of the committee chairmen, Dr. Harry St. Clair, a member of her committee, was selected to serve in her place during the remainder of the drive.

H. E. Bartlett was appointed to serve in the place of Mrs. E. W. Richardson, as chairman of one of the committees for one week, on account of the fact that Mrs. Richardson will be busy throughout the week at the San Fernando fair.

It was decided that at the meeting of the committeemen at White Inn next Friday evening a complete report as to the number of new members secured will be given.

MRS. MAXWELL ENTERTAINS

Mrs. A. J. Maxwell entertained members of her Sunday School class in the First Baptist Church with an evening of work and play, at her home, 400 Stocker street, last night.

The first part of the evening was given to the manufacture of books for use in class work. After that, games were played and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present were Ruth Olson, Louis Elliott, Marjorie Sudlow, Virginia Adams, Bernice Miller, Doris Stamps, Virginia Sawyer, Bobbie Hankey, Richard Morgan, Howard Bentley, Donald Bentley, Brandon Bronenberg, Keith Arnold and Howard Kent.

REPORTS AUTO ACCIDENT

Mrs. W. A. Lincoln, 1732 West Forty-ninth street, Los Angeles, reported to the police yesterday evening that while driving her car across the intersection of Colorado street and Verdugo road she struck a boy on a wheel. The boy was unhurt but the bicycle was wrecked. Mrs. Lincoln stated that she was driving slow and that she stopped the car at once.
